This is a rare opportunity to own and operate multiple profitable businesses all within a single property. The property includes a gas station, convenience store, and liquor outlet, along with a residential living area and garage. The building is only 15 years old and has been well maintained. Strategically located on busy Highway 43, it offers year-round high traffic and excellent visibility, with easy access from the highway. An all-in-one package â€" ideal for an owner-operator or investor seeking strong income potential in a prime location.
